

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild
January 24, 2023 Meeting Minutes

1. Welcome and Introductions: President Lorl F welcomed members and guests. Each member/guest introduced themselves and stated something quilting-related that they would like to learn this year. The secretary recorded the responses for future reference.
2. Business:
  1. A motion was made by Karen H to approve the secretary and treasurer reports. The motion was seconded by Darcy B. Motion approved.
  2. Cindy N made a motion to approve Val Lucas as Treasurer of the WRQG, effective immediately. The motion was seconded by Bette T and passed unanimously.
  3. Lori reported that the church (Bethlehem) received a $1000 anonymous donation to fund the guild's portion of the cost of the TV. The guild decided to give the church $500 for use of the building and $500 as a gift from the guild. Sandy G. Suggested the guild make a donation each January to the church. Lori will add this to the agenda for January 2024.
  4. Lori asked for two volunteers to take on the newsletter and photography duties.
3. Updates:
  1. Lynda P announced the beginning of the Sparrows quilt along, which will be held in the WRQG Facebook group, and encouraged members to post their progress.
  2. Karen H reminded us to continue bringing in Ohio Star blocks
  3. Karen H gave an update on the quilt show, and announced that the next meeting will be held at the church during the first open sew in February.
  4. Jackie reported on the 2023 program and informed the members of a quilter's lending library of DVDs and book, to be stored in the church.
  5. Teri S. Reported on progress gathering donations for the Quilter's/Crafter's sale to be held March 11 at the church. Guild members are invited to shop from 9-11; family and friends may shop from 11-2. Cash or check, but check is preferred. Members are welcome to bring in items for the sale or may call Teri or another member of the team for pick-up.
  6. Jackie provided copies of a pattern for members to sew journal covers to sell at the Quilter's/Crafter's sale. Members were asked to sew one or two covers this month for the sale.
4. Show and Tell
  1. Members shared their beautiful quilts, with an emphasis on scrap quilts.
5. Reminders
  1. Feb 7 and 21: Open Sew
  2. Feb 28: Next meeting
6. Meeting Adjourned

Submitted by Lynda Plamann