

WRQG Meeting Minutes
March 28, 2023

1. Welcome and Introductions

Vice President Karen Hallenbeck brought the meeting to order. Members and guests introduced themselves and answered the ice breaker (What is your favorite dessert?).

2. Business

The Secretary and Leadership Team reports were approved. The Treasurer report was approved with amendment.

Members were polled to determine interest in Saturday Open Sew. No one expressed interest.

Members were polled to determine interest in a guild quilting retreat. Eighteen members were interested.

Volunteers are needed for the newsletter and photographer positions.

3. Updates

Quilter's/Crafter's sale: Leftover fabric was set up for members to shop after the meeting. We discussed what to do with the leftover fabric after the final sales of the evening. All large pieces are being saved to sell at the Quilt Show. Smaller pieces will be pulled to be used for making items to sell at the show, and the remainder will be donated to a charity quilt group.

Quilt Show Update: Karen reported that ten potential vendors have been identified.

4. Show and Tell

Members shared their beautiful work.

5. Tips and Techniques

Yvonne Clark brought a number of her fabulous t-shirt quilts to share with the guild. Members asked many questions and received much helpful information from Yvonne.

6. Members were reminded about upcoming events and the meeting was adjourned. Members were free to shop the leftover fabric sale.
