

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild
Meeting Minutes
May 23, 2023

1. President Lori Friberg welcomed members and guests. Ice Breaker: What hobby do you enjoy other than quilting?
2. Business:
 - Cheryl S made the motion to approve the Secretary, Leadership Team and Treasurer Reports. Motion seconded by Karen H, and motion was approved.
 - Lori asked for 1-2 members to volunteer to arrange a quilting retreat for the guild. Four additional members expressed interest in attending a quilting retreat. Members were asked to contact Jackie L to volunteer.
 - Lori informed the group that the guild is working toward becoming a non profit organization (501C). Darcy B questioned whether the advantages of doing so outweigh the disadvantages. More discussion needed?
 - Guidelines changes will be coming up. Lori asked members to review the guidelines that have been posted on the guild website and provide suggestions.
 - Voting for leadership team position is coming up. Lori asked members to contact Karen H if interested in serving on a committee or on the leadership team.
3. Updates
 - Ohio Stars quilts: Members needed for assembly
 - Sheri G provided an update on the proposed bus trip to the Great Wisconsin Quilt Show to be held in Madison, WI on Friday, September 8, 2023. More information will be provided to guild members soon.
 - Karen H provided an update on the guild's quilt show. There are now three paid vendors. Karen asked members to continue making items to be sold at the quilt show.
 - Members were informed that there is space in Wendy Ahnen's art quilt workshop on May 25.
4. Show and Tell
 - Members shared their beautiful quilts.
5. Wendy Ahnen, textile and portrait artist, wowed guild members with her spectacular art quilts. Thank you, Wendy!
6. Reminders and Closing
 - Open Sew on June 6 and 20. Jackie L will present at the June 27 meeting and hold a Bargello workshop on June 29.
