

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild

Agenda * June 27, 2023

Wild Rivers Quilt guild members are excited to learn about, share, and encourage the art of quilt making. By nature, quilters are inspired and inspiring, inquisitive, creative, and friendly. They love to gather in friendship and share their love of quilting in fellowship with others.

1. Welcome and Introductions

2. Business

Secretary: 5/23 Treasurer: 6/1 $ 3,977.15 Leadership: 6/22

Guidelines recommendations announcement:

Budget Policy: "Expenditures over $500 that are not specifically stated in the budget need to be approved by members, 2/3 quorum, and voting may be at meeting, via email or phone. Vote details (by vote method) must be duly recorded in the minutes."

Meeting Length: "beginning promptly at 5:30 p.m., and adjourning no later than 7:30 pm"

Nominations for Elections: President, Vice President

Volunteer: Program Team member needed.

Quilting retreat: 2024: Darcy B. and Andrea N. Thank you!

Square demonstration

3. Appraising Your Quilts: Lynn Conti

4. It's an (up) Date

July Presenters - Round Robin

* Kathy Friberg - English Paper Piecing,

* Cheryl Stromberg, Hand and Machine Applique Method,

* Sit Sew and Visit Session 3

August Presenter/Workshop: Robin Gausebeck - Machine Raw Edge Applique

October Presenter/Workshop: Kristi Droese - Accuquilt Go Cutter

Quilt Expo bus trip: Sept 9

Quilt Show: Sept 29 & 30

5. Show 'n Tell

6. Tips n Techniques:

Jackie Lehto and Bargello quilt making

7. Reminders & Closing

June 29: Bargello workshop with Jackie

July 4th!

July 15: FC Historical Society: Strawberry Social / Quilt Show

July 25: Next Meeting: Hand-Sewing Round Robin