

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild
August 22, 2023

1. Welcome: President Lori Friberg brought the meeting to order. Six guest were present. Lori posed the icebreaker question: What are the three things you appreciate most about the WRQG? The responses were recorded by the secretary and have been published in the September newsletter.
2. Business:
 1. Darcy B made a motion to approve the Secretary and Treasurer Reports; motion was seconded by Barb C, and the motion passed.
 2. Cheryl S made a motion to approve the following unanimous slate of candidates for the open leadership team positions: Karen Hallenbeck for President, Cindy Nault for VP, and Val Lucas for Treasurer. Connie S seconded the motion, and the motion passed. The Secretary position remains open.
 3. Open positions were announced for the program team (1 person), the welcome team (1-2 people), the care team (1-2 people) and a marketing coordinator.
3. Updates

Open Sew on September 5. Members were reminded to RSVP on the guild's website.
Bus trip to Madison quilt show on September 8.
September 26 Christmas Projects Round Robin with Lynda P and Sheri G

Quilt Show September 29-30:
Free entry to WRQG members with name badge.
Set up on Thursday; bring quilts to Pine Mountain on Wednesday 2:30-5:30.
Members were encouraged to sign up to work and to turn in items to sell ASAP.
Kristi Droese visits to demonstrate Accuquilt Go Cutter on October 24 with a workshop the following day.
4. Show and Tell
Wonderful show and tell, as usual.
5. Robin Gausebeck gave an outstanding presentation and trunk show, showcasing her beautiful machine raw edge appliqué.
6. Lori brought the meeting to a close.