

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild
Minutes * Sept. 26, 2023

Wild Rivers Quilt guild members are excited to learn about, share, and encourage the art of quilt making. By nature, quilters are inspired and inspiring, inquisitive, creative, and friendly. They love to gather in friendship and share their love of quilting in fellowship with others.

1. Welcome, Introductions, Housekeeping We've been asked by the Church to inform you of the upcoming Fortune Lake Fall Fest/Quilt Auction. Sat. Oct. 7th 9:30 to Noon
2. Business: Approval, Meeting Minutes Aug. 22, Cindy N 2nd Bette T.
Treasurer's Report 8/31 $5,464.39, Rose S, 2nd Charlene G

Reminder - It's time to pay your dues.
Vacancies: Secretary, Care Team coordinator

3. Updates:
Madison Quilt Show bus trip - Cheri Giordana
Oct 3: Open Sew: Please use RSVP on website: winter weather, facilitator coordination

POLL: Once a month Saturday? No? Poll again. Second Open Sew during the month? Poll Again (Because I forgot to ask this).

Susan Kiester is selling T-Shirts tonight and at the Quilt Show for $30 each. Our Guild will earn $5 for each one. Select from various Quilting sayings on them.

4. Quilt Show: Sept 29th & 30th
* Work Schedule: sign up - Please and Thank you! * Quilt Show Schedule will be passed around on a clipboard tonight. Remember to take your name badge with you because it serves as your admission without paying.
5. Program Update:
Oct 24: Presenter/Workshop: Kristi Droese - Accuquilt Go Cutter
Dec 4 (Monday): Holiday Gathering: fun, food, gift exchange
6. Show 'n Tell
7. Round Robin Tonight
* Lynda Plamann: Christmas stocking
* Sheri Giordana: Holiday apron
* Quilt Show – updates, Q&A