

Wild Rivers Quilt Guild Agenda February 27, 2024

Welcome, Introductions, Housekeeping

Business:

Meeting minutes: January meeting minutes not yet prepared.

Jan. Treasurer's report: Val Balance: _____

Motion made - Seconded, - Approved

We're happy to announce that Charlene G. has stepped up to fill the vacant Secretarial position. As protocol requires a vote on this issue, can someone make a motion?

Saturday Open Sew: 5 people attended. We can continue having them if 5 or more people attend.

Service Projects: There were 7 suggestions this year and the L-Team would like to know if our members would like to do 1 or 2 of them?

POLL: We will distribute a list of the 7 suggestions - circle only 2 of the ones that you feel you'd like to contribute to, or be a part of. (a 1/2 page ballot will be passed out)

1) Foster kids quilts, and/or pillowcases. 2) Caring House quilts. 3) Quilts of Valor - each person sewing a block or two. 4) Denim Heart, Kingsford, quilts. 5) Walk of Life, baby quilts. 6) Grace's Closet, quilts, baby blankets. 7) Jean M. quilts. (finishing quilts for the family that she started before her death last year).

Technology: Cheryl S provided a training of the Overhead camera/TV. She did this at the Open Sew on Feb. 6th and 2 people attended: Jackie L. and Lynda P.

Spring Retreat: The location of this retreat has changed. Susan K. has graciously volunteered her home on Lake Antoine, March 7, 8, and 9th to host our retreat. She has room for 10 people to sew, and 8 to stay overnight. Right now there is room for 1 more overnight person and 2 day sewers. Contact Susan if interested.

Garage Sale: (Lori) Teri S. and her team would like to oversee another Garage Sale in 2025. She is asking our membership to donate your unwanted fabric which she will store at her home until a date is set and enough fabric is collected.

Upcoming Programs: (Jackie)

Show 'n Tell

Tonight's Program is a Round Robin featuring Lynda P. demonstrating how to make Bags out of Candy wrappers, and Karen H. demonstrating how to make String Quilt blocks.
