WRQG Care Team Guidelines and Responsibilities

The primary vision of our guild as stated in our Guidelines is as follows:

"The Wild Rivers Quilt Guild is a group of quilters who wish to learn about, preserve, and encourage the art of quilt making; promote a gathering of like-minded folks in a fun and relaxed environment; provide education and instruction for guild members and visitors in the history, design, and techniques of quilt making."

Purpose: The purpose of the Care team is to care for members in time of special needs; offering Guild support, comfort, and prayers.

The Care Team shall:

1. Uphold Wild Rivers Quilt Guild's mission and values

2. Communicate with Leadership Team as needed

3. Keep an updated list of Guild members who are willing to send cards or reach out through calls, texts, emails, and other means to provide support, care, and comfort to members in need of a special connection. Such needs may include, but are not limited to, serious illness or accident, death in family, etc.

4. Communicate with Guild members on the list created in #3 above when a member needs to receive such a connection.

5. Use good discretion in situations that may require member's privacy, personal preferences of individuals, needs of a given situation, etc.

6. Personally send cards or reach out through calls, texts, emails, and other means to provide support, care, and comfort to members in need of a special connection

7. Be willing to accept calls, texts, messages from persons informing you of a member's need for such care.
